Boycott polls,
black power
advocate says

Militant civil rights leader and black power advocate Charles "Sonny" Hendricks, chairman of the Black Radical Action Project, proposed this week a nation-wide boycott of the polls by Negroes in the coming November election.

Mr. Hendricks called for this move in light of the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. which he called a "slap on the cheeks of the black man" and of the late assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, which he called a "second insult."

"We have seen white injustice. Let's see white justice," he stated. He said the Negro is now singing "Who Can I Turn To?"

Mr. Hendricks pointed out that there is not a white man running who isn't a politician first."

Left in the race are Senator Eugene McCarthy and Vice-President Hubert H. Humphrey, Democrats, and Gov. Nelson Rockefeller and former Vice-President Richard Nixon, Republicans.

Blacks GOPers
at convention

Black political power was very much in evidence at the Marion County Young Republican Convention held Saturday, June 8, at the Beurt Servass Estate.

Avis Bell, a member of the GOP Black Activist, was a landslide victor for director-at-large from center township. Mrs. Judy Edwards, wife of Choice Edwards, candidate for state representative, and Bill Hardy, vice-president of the Indianapolis Board of Public Works, were presented with awards for most outstanding young Republicans from center township, female and male respectively.

The YR convention, because of the hotly contested campaign for chairmanship, was one of the best attended in recent years. Several local and state candidates and officials were in attendance including L. Keith Bolen, county chairman; Nola Allen, 11th district vice-chairlady; Bill Ruckelshaus, U.S. Senate candidate; John Rowe, Central Committee executive secretary, and John Gallacher, state auditor and candidate for lieutenant governor.

The Young republican organization includes many noted officer holder in its membership, one of whom is Mayor Richard G. Lugar.

Kennedy revenge murder probed by Chicago cops

CHICAGO — The senseless murder of a Jordanian shopkeeper, considered by acquaintances as an ultra-liberal, has been viewed by authorities as retaliation for the slaying of Senator Robert F. Kennedy.

Dead is Abdel Rayyan, 51, father of nine, shot Saturday in his southside grocery. Police said if this was to avenge Kennedy's death the "executioners" used poor taste because the victim had a former Negro wife and was a stern admirer of the dead senator.

Arrested was Aaron Myers, 19, a service station attendant. He and an unknown partner are accused of entering Rayyan's shop, stepping up to a vegetable bin where Rayyan stood and shot him twice—once in the head behind the ear—without saying a word.

The Kennedy retaliation angle came into prominence when it was discovered Rayyan was a Jordanian and robbery was ruled out as a motive since no money was noted missing.

Sirhan Bishara Sirhan the suspect held in Los Angeles in the killing of the New York senator, is a Jordanian.

Rayyan's former wife, who practices Islam, said: "He never spoke radical or violent about anyone. He admired the

Mrs. Moore named to library board

A prominent Indianapolis community woman and educator has been appointed to the new Indianapolis Marion County Library Board of seven directors.

VIVIAN TERRY MOORE

Named to the position was Mrs. Vivian Terry Moore, who presently serves as dean of girls at Crispus Attucks High School.

The board directs activities of the Indianapolis Public Library of 1,000,000 books and also the County Library which is two years old. Her term will expire on April 13, 1971.

Mrs. Moore is a product of the Indianapolis elementary and secondary schools. She was graduated from Manual Training High School and received her A. B. and M. S. degrees from Butler University with majors in English, Spanish, and education.

Mrs. Moore is a career teacher of the Crispus Attucks High School faculty where she has taught English, Journalism, and distributed education.

A member and former deaconess of Witherspoon Presbyterian Church, she is affiliated with the American Association of University Women, League of Women Voters, Women Sponsors of The Indianapolis Recorder Charities, Indianapolis Education Association, Indiana State Teachers Association, Indiana Women Deans and Counselors, and Administrative Women in Education.

Shooting climax interracial tryst, father-teenager tiff

Two persons, including an 18-year-old youth and a 33-year-old man — alleged to have been surprised by his assailant during an interracial love tryst in the accused slayer's home—were shot to death Saturday in unrelated incidents.

In the first shooting—the victim, Preston Tyler, 705 N. Senate, died about 5 a. m. in Marion County General Hospital as the result of two bullet wounds in the head fired about one and one half hours earlier at a residence at 267 N. Mile.

ELIZABETH RAYMER

WILLIAM TORRENCE

LEONARD RAYMER

The second victim, William Harris, 3319 N. New Jersey, was gunned down in the street at the intersection of Indiana Avenue and North St. Saturday evening as he reportedly sought to defend his mother during an altercation at the busy intersection.

In the earlier slaying, police called to the Mile Avenue address around 3:30 a.m. Saturday found the victim, clad only in a tee-shirt and socks lying on the floor of a bedroom in the modest frame bungalow.

Awaiting the officers' arrival was Leonard Raymer, white and 29 years old of the Mile Avenue address. Raymer handed the investigating officers a .38-caliber revolver claiming he fired the fatal shots at Tyler when he (Tyler) came at him with a butcher knife.

Det. Sgt. Robert Termini, of the police homicide division, confirmed that a butcher knife had been found in the victim's hand.

However, some doubt has arisen as to the validity of the accused assailant's claim of being attacked with a knife. A fully loaded revolver, belonging to Tyler, was found under a pillow on Raymer's bed.

"It seems highly unlikely Tyler would have gone for Raymer with a knife when he had that revolver under the pillow," one police official commented.

During the course of the investigation police located Raymer's wife, Mrs. Lucille Raymer, 25, hiding in a car outside the house.

According to Sgt. Termini, Mrs. Raymer at first denied any knowledge of the shooting but later admitted that she had been seeing Tyler for several months and had been in the house with him

Hunt for King's alleged assassin ends in London

WASHINGTON — Spreading over the United States, Mexico, Canada and parts of Europe a two-month manhunt for the accused slayer of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. resulted in the arrest in London, England last Saturday of "one, James Earl Ray."

The erstwhile traveler under many aliases including Eric Starvo Galt, John Willard, Harvey Lowmyer, James McBridge, James Walton, James O'Conner, Paul Bridgeman and eventually Ramon George

Sneyd, was arrested as he was about to fly to Belgium, the FBI announced.

J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, announced that Ray, carrying a fully loaded pistol, was seized before he could board a plane from Lisbon, Portugal. He offered no resistance.

Metropolitan area housing challenge

The housing problem or shortage over metropolitan Indianapolis has had its parallel in the adage, "the poor we always have with us." Barring on a period of nearly a decade (1960-67) U. S. Census reports indicate a population increase of about two per cent annually.

During this period households of the metropolitan area (Marion County) increased by 40,200 to an estimated 252,000 as of September last year.

However, there was a decline in household sizes over the period, (1960-67) from 3.23 persons a household to 3.09 persons. But the declines in household sizes were only evident for the white portion of the population (666,000 in 1967). The decline reflected the declining trend in metropolitan birth rates since 1960, and the long-term trend of less adults per household.

Over the period noted, extensive demolition for high-way construction of nonwhite housing units, coupled with sustained racial occupancy restrictions within the metropolitan housing market, resulted in severe shortages

Country buries another friend of the black man

NEW YORK—"There is a discrimination in this world and slavery and slaughter and starvation. Governments oppress their people; and millions are trapped in poverty while the nation grows rich; and wealth is lavished on armaments everywhere."

These were words spoken by the late Senator Robert F. Kennedy and reiterated by his brother, Senator Edward (Ted) Kennedy, during final rites for the assassinated leader Saturday in St. Patrick's Cathedral. More than 2,000 persons attended the funeral, thousands waited outside the church and millions watched on television as the third of four Kennedy brothers was eulogized.

"Another good man has been killed," an elderly black woman said in a murmur as the casket was being carried from the Catholic Church.

"He was for the poor black man and the poor white man—that's why he's dead," said a young black man with tears streaming down his cheeks as the funeral procession left the church.

What was said outside the church expresses the general feeling of the black man in America—that another friend of the black man has been killed because of his liberal views and racial policies.

"My brother need not be idealized or enlarged in death beyond what he was in life. He should be remembered simply as a good and decent man, who saw wrong and tried to right it, saw suffering and tried to heal it, saw war and tried to stop it," said the younger Kennedy as he closed his eulogy.

One of the nation's darkest weeks ended in Arlington National Cemetery as the slain senator was laid to rest in a grave site 60 feet from that of his brother, President John F. Kennedy, who was also assassinated.

Thousands of mourners lined railroad tracks as the body of the fallen senator was being carried on an eight-hour trip from New York to Washington.

The trip normally takes four hours but the train slowed as it passed through various towns and cities in order that the many people, some who had been

In nonwhite needs or demands. Further, or at the same time there was an increase in average household size for the minority group population (principally Negro, 130,000).

As of September, 1967, an estimated shortage of more than 27,000 minimum quality housing units existed within the metropolitan area of the city.

Exemplary explorers of metropolitan development, city planners, etc., venture lately that over the 1967-85 period, the need for new housing units (metropolitan area) may total 132,000 or more units.

The needs or demands are broken down as follows:
Population growth, 90,000 new households.

Negro demand (repressed) as of 1967, it is estimated that a net demand of 5,000 housing units (Negro) is inhibited by the racially restrictive nature of parts of the housing markets. This demand is by Negro people who want, can afford, but cannot obtain better located and higher quality housing.

Vacancy requirements, over the (1967-85) period, an additional 5,700 housing units will be required to maintain a minimum stock of sound vacant units at all times. These will be necessary to assure the effective functioning of the general housing market.

Replacement of losses, an estimated 31,600 housing units will be required over the period to provide for expected demolition, fire, and other losses of the occupied housing units. Prompt reduction of the occupied substandard housing inventory will reduce these replacement requirements to 23,000 units over the 1967-85 period.

The total number of new housing units required to meet metropolitan housing needs is as follows:
Population growth, 90,000; repressed Negro demands, 5,000; vacancy requirements, 5,700; replacement of losses, 23,800 and substandard unit replacement (net) 7,800. . . the grand total, 132,800 units.

Housing needs or demands for the metropolitan community, over the period herein noted reflect the elements following:

standing or sitting 24 hours, could get a look at the train carrying the body.

Some cried. Some prayed. Some sang. And some just watched as the coaches carrying the family and close friends as well as invited guests crawled past.

As one looks back a few weeks, one might ask: "Has America gone mad?"

What's with a nation that kills three of its most brilliant leaders within five years and is so victimized by random violence that even the President must keep his travel plans secret?

Is it now open season on black and white people committed to interracial justice? Or do all political leaders, regardless of their leanings, face danger just for being "authority figures?"

These were some of the agonizing questions being asked by a nation which wondered in the wake of Kennedy's assassination whether Americans do anything else than kill off each other.

The reactions to the Kennedy slaying were largely emotional. Just as Dr. Martin Luther King's assassination prompted the passage of the 1968 Civil Rights Act, the New York Senator's death was followed by long-overdue Senate approval of a watered-down gun-control bill.

Violence, crime in the streets, public disorder, and political lynching—these were some of the topics being discussed in the wake of the Kennedy slaying.

Oddly enough, black people were fingered, by indirection, in a killing none of them committed.

For it was a Jordanian immigrant, Sirhan B. Sirhan, acting for nationalistic motives best known to him who was accused of slaying Kennedy, not a "rioter, looter or black nationalist."

Even so, the cry went out: "This nation cannot endure any more violence." "The laws must be obeyed." "Violence in the name of social protest

The search for Dr. King's slayer first turned up a suspect identified as Eric Starvo Galt, later the FBI said Galt is really Ray. He (Ray) age 40 is an escapee from the Missouri State Penitentiary. He had escaped from the prison at Jefferson City about a year before Dr. King's murder.

FBI director Hoover praised the cooperation of Canadian police and Scotland Yard, but said Ray's arrest was the direct result of an intensive

It was as if every American, or at least every black man, had pulled that trigger. It did no good to point out that a man who lived most of his life in the Middle East, and who was not even a citizen of the United States, was linked to the killing.

Meanwhile, the 24-year-old Sirhan was formally accused in a grand jury indictment of murdering Kennedy when he was arraigned in a Los Angeles court. He was led into the court in a wheel chair under tight security. His legs and arms were tapped due to injuries received in a scuffle following the shooting.

Sirhan is to appear in court again June 28 to enter a plea,

The excitement was high and the awards were plentiful for delightful bridge players participating in the Midwest tournament held the past weekend at Howard Johnson Motor Lodge. Bridge is one of the more popular pastimes in the Indianapolis community.

Some out-of-towners made it a "family affair" bringing along their spouses and children who playfully enjoyed the enclosed swimming pool at Howard Johnson's.

Gracious hosts and hostesses from Indianapolis registered over 200 guests from Indiana, Missouri, Tennessee, New York, Kentucky, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Kansas and Ohio.

"Concentration" on serious bridge play were highlighted by the banquet held Sunday night where trophies were presented to the lucky winners.

The first game, a mixed pair event, was held Friday night. An Indianapolis couple, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bowles Sr., won trophies for second place in the master division. Mrs. Joseph Butler and Cameron Kean won trophies in the non-master division. Dr. John Young and Miss Alma Porter placed third overall in the life master division.

Mrs. Richard Boyd and Maxie Davis were fifth. Mr. and Mrs. Crowell Shelton were overall winners in the same event. Mr. and Mrs. John Metzger were section winners.

In Saturday's open pair game Indianapolis had four section winners. They were Charles Ramsey and Alton Allen in the master division and Mrs. Jacqueline Hanley and Mrs. Harris Travis in the life master division.

Sunday's open team game had no winners from Indianapolis, however, George Fraction, a local man, and Herbert Hayden of Detroit, Mich., won second place trophies in the side game.

National officers present for the sectional were Mrs. Pauline Taylor, national vice-president; Kenneth Shorter, national chairman of the board;

Daniel Scrivens, regional vice-president, Great Lakes; Mrs. Myrna Beatty, board member and Eunice Williams, chairman of the membership committee.

Also Annease Carty, chairman of the women's committee; Mrs. Richard Boyd, Indianapolis, secretary of the middle west, and Indianapolis' own Maxie Davis, regional vice-president for the midwestern division who was re-elected for a three-year term.

Tournament chairman was Crowell Shelton. Outstanding among his committee was the partnership committee chairman, Miss Blanche Dogan, Mrs. Charlotte Horne, and Mrs. Betty Anderson.

Robert Grissom, local director, served along with the national directors.

John Metzger is Indianapolis Unit president.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Going travelling this summer or entertaining guests from out-of-town? If so write or phone in this information to The Recorder for its "Vacationers Come and Go" column. Every one is welcome to submit information on their trip or guests. Call 634-1545 or write 518 Indiana. We want to hear from you.

PTA dinner

The Stockholm House in the Meadows was the scene of a recent dinner given by the executive board of the School 26 PTA in honor of the principal and teachers.

Fifty teachers and School 26 personnel enjoyed the affair and expressed appreciation. Gifts were presented to Mrs. Vivian Watts, who is taking a maternity leave, and William Douglass, who has been promoted to assistant principal at School 53.

Transferring to other schools are Luther Mitchell, Mrs. Susie Bryant, James Compton, Robert King, and Miss Deloris Keaton. Mrs. Lois Twyman is the outgoing PTA president. William Malone is principal.

important." She added: "In this mixed up world there is a great need for dedicated teachers. Those who are interested in helping young people to adjust to these fast moving times should enter the teaching profession."

"When students succeed in becoming well-adjusted successful citizens, it is very rewarding to the teacher who taught them."

Mrs. Turner was born in Indianapolis. She attended schools 23 and 17 and was graduated from Shortridge High School and Butler University with an A.B. degree. She earned a grade school teacher's certificate from Indiana State Teachers College and returned to Butler University to earn her M.S. degree.

Mrs. Turner was the recipient of a fellowship to New York University. She also received a scholarship to Purdue University to study speech. She has taken additional courses and received a guidance license from Butler University. One could find Mrs. Turner at yearly guidance meetings out of the city.

The retiree's teaching career started on the fifth grade level at School 26 under Matthias Nolcox, principal. She also taught at School 19 under Harriet C. Kelley, and School 37 under Hazel Hendricks.

At School 37 she was advanced to teach the seventh and eighth grades. Mrs. Vivian

"If I were to suggest a philosophy of life it would be to live a full life each day as if it were the last. Along with daily activities, do a kindness for someone. Read a beautiful poem, prayer, story, or quotation, and stop long enough to enjoy the beauty of nature. These are the things which give meaning and satisfaction to one's life."

With this bit of wisdom in mind Mrs. Lorene T. Turner of 3121 N. Arsenal will begin the new task of re-designing and adjusting her daily activities since she will no longer journey to Crispus Attucks High School daily to greet students as guidance counselor. Before her retirement from Crispus Attucks in June, Mrs. Turner had also served as director of student activities which meant she came in close contact with the pupils.

She calls her career "especially rewarding" the last year while she was a counselor. Like most counselors she grew to personally know about 300 students and could measure their work from the freshman year up until they gradually matured into seniors.

"Counseling is more rewarding than classroom teaching. You can see the students grow faster and mature and mold into the type of citizen you want them to be," Mrs. Turner pointed out. Students made regular trips to the Counseling Center located in the northside of the building on the first floor.

Of today's youths, the educator notes: "Young people need an education today and also experience in co-curricular activities. Many colleges and employers wish to know the names of high school activities in which the students have engaged. This information is very

Teaching rewarding for Nancy Powell

Seeing youngsters develop under your supervision is one of the more rewarding aspects of the teaching profession. This is the strong feeling of one who should know, Mrs. Nancy M. Powell, who had completed 40 years of teaching when she retired in June.

Mrs. Powell of 312 W. 39th was highly regarded as a social studies teacher at Crispus Attucks High School from which she retired. She served under the principalships of Matthias Nolcox, Thomas Anderson, fields of knowledge and experience."

A person foreseeing a teaching career should have the regular educational qualifications along with training in all subjects in special education.

"This is particularly true when teaching in inner-city schools with underprivileged children," she noted. For the last several years Mrs. Powell has taught the slow learner and it is through this experience she bases the need for training in special education.

A native of Indianapolis, Mrs. Powell was graduated from School 57, Arsenal Technical High School, and Butler University.

She has done graduate work at Butler University, Indiana State University Extension, Lincoln University, Jefferson City, Mo., and Columbia University, New York. Besides, she has attended numerous workshops and conferences for teachers.

At the close of school, the retiring teachers and other personnel were honored at a luncheon. Mrs. Powell received a check from the school and an orchid corsage.

Travelling, gardening, reading, and social activities are now on Mrs. Powell's schedule since she has "written 30" to her teaching career.

The educator holds membership in the Indianapolis Education Association, American Federation of Teachers, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, the Green Thumb Garden Club, the M & M Bridge Club, Butler Tarkington Neighborhood Association, Second Christian Church, and the Flanner House Guild. She is president of the women's service club of Second Christian.

Flanner House Guild closes its successful year at a luncheon

The Flanner House Guild of Indianapolis closed its yearly activities Saturday, June 8, at an elaborate luncheon.

Mrs. Frank Ransom and her committee exercised all of their artistic skills in making the decorations and program unique.

Each table was centered with a beautiful crystal bud vase with pink roses. As a souvenir, each member and guest received a plastic decorative fan.

The speaker's table was centered with a beautiful arrangement of varied colored flowers. The president and general chairman of the special project were presented beautiful pink carnation corsages.

Approximately 65 Guild members and guests were thrilled by the program presented by some of the children of the Nursery School.

Mrs. Recile T. Avington, mistress of ceremonies, greeted the guests and Dr. Cleo Blackburn, executive director of Flanner House, gave the invocation. While the luncheon was being served, the group sang a few of the songs from "Fashion Through the Years" including "Memories," "Bicycle Built For Two" and "Til We Meet Again."

While the dessert was being served, Mrs. Patricia Ballard presented the chairman and co-chairman of the fashion show from the Nursery School. The models were presented first in modern clothes and then they commemorated "Fashion Through the Years" by wearing clothes of yesteryear.

They were delightful in clothes from the 20's and 40's which were too large for them, and they showed their happiness at playing grown-up as they went through the crowd.

The show was closed as the usual fashion show, with the parson leading the bride and groom to the altar.

Participants in the show were from three to five years of age. They were Billy Lester, Christopher Gill, Kimberly Moore, Skilly McIntyre, Terry Legg, Edward Vance, De'Anna Carter, Darla Caldwell, and Cathy and William Litz.

Members of the Guild were especially grateful to parents and staff for the children's participation. The excellent training received in the Nursery School was exhibited at the luncheon by the children.

Other staff members are Robert DeFrantz, director; Miss Earline Styles, coordinator, and Mrs. Patricia Ballard, program consultant. Teachers are Mmes. Oscarlette Hewlett, Ludie Shaw, Eleanor Lewis, and Dorothy Wells.

Mayor Richard G. Lugar was unable to attend as guest speaker due to a previous commitment. Dr. Blackburn ably substituted for him. He prefaced his remarks with a quotation: "Those who expect great things of God must dare great things for God."

He compared this to the progress made by the Guild as well as the Flanner House agency. He stated: "We are now serving people and good things are happening to us." He referred to the opening of the East Side Center at 16th and Columbia. The agency is dedicated to serve all people. He stated that everyone wanted everything "right now." "It takes time," he noted. "Our personal problems will not render itself to instant solution," he added.

Dr. Blackburn further stated that the country was won with a gun but "can the values and virtues that we have used to win this economy sustain us as a nation."

The president, Mrs. Virgil Cunningham, and the general chairman of the special project, Miss Josie Hawthorne, expressed their appreciation to the members, committee chairman, and participants for their assistance in making "Fashion Through the Years" a success. The Guild would also like to express appreciation to the public for its support.

The next meeting of the Flanner House Guild will be in October, 1968.

Mrs. Leslie Woolford served as co-chairman of the luncheon committee. Other members were Davine Nolcox, Bernice Fraction, and Gertrude Page.

Lotus men are hosts at anniversary dance

An estimated 600 gala guests greatly enjoyed the 61st anniversary sport dance of the perennially popular Lotus Club recently at RCA Hall, 3518 E. Michigan.

Each Lotus man was easily identified by his white carnation boutonniere. Each wife of the host group wore elegant attire accented by a yellow carnation corsage.

Besides dancing to the music of Bill Boyd and the Music Men, guests enjoyed a fabulous floor show featuring local talent.

Stretched across the front of the stage was a banner which signified the name of the club, the year it was founded and a Lotus flower on either side. Several out-of-town guests joined in the gaiety.

Black and gold are the colors of the social club, which is known for its charitable generosity.

Members are now looking forward to a picnic in the fall. Officers introduced at the dance were Messrs. Bud Garnett, president; James Williams, vice-president; Floyd Young, secretary; William Bobo, assistant secretary; Leonard Moss, treasurer; Herbert Martin, chaplain, and Osber Ballinger,

The room was decorated with pennants and pompons from the high schools that were in existence during the 1950's.

Ralph Stone, disc jockey from local station WTLC, played the tunes that were popular in 1950 and through the years including the current top tunes.

Guests enjoyed again the Madison, Cha-Cha, and several other dances that were widely enjoyed during the 50's.

Highlights of the evening included a limbo contest, Mrs. Louise Jones was dance chairman, Mrs. Luvenia Davis is club president.

Books on Negro are included in I.U.'s library

BLOOMINGTON—The Indiana University Library has purchased a small, select collection of books on the subject of the Negro—especially the Negro in America.

Many of the recent acquisitions are out-of-print items. They were purchased from the Argosy Book Stores of New York.

When the newly purchased books are catalogued and ready for use, the I.U. Library will possess one of the Midwest's most nearly complete and qualitative collection of books by and about the Negro, said Cecil Byrd, University librarian.

The over-all collection in the University Libraries, consisting of hundreds of titles, is particularly valuable because it includes books on all sides of the Negro question, many of them dating back to the early 19th century.

Titles by Walter White, Booker T. Washington, Paul Robeson, Robert Penn Warren, James S. Childer, W. E. B. Dubois, and William Lloyd Garrison are included in the holdings.

A number of the recently acquired titles came from the personal collection of Paul Robeson and contain the autographs of Robeson and his wife.

Fearless Sugar Ray suffers stage fright

NEW YORK—"I was scared, real scared."

This was Sugar Ray Robinson and he wasn't talking about any of the 202 pro fights in his fabulous boxing career.

"It was the most frightening moment of my life," said the still sleek and handsome retired boxer. "The guy random the hall yelling, '15 minutes, Mr. Robinson, 15 minutes.'"

"Man, I'm telling you I was scared."

The occasion was Sugar Ray's debut in the legitimate theater at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas, Nev. He had a supporting role in "The Odd Couple," starring Tony Randall and Mickey Rooney.

"You know, I've been on the stage before, dancing and singing," Robinson said in an interview. "I've been in the movies and I've been on television. But this was acting before a live audience and I was sweating buckets. I'm telling you I was scared."

"I wasn't scared," interjected Robinson's wife, Millie. "I knew he would be good—and he was. He was great."

"It went off fine," said Ray. "Once I spoke my first lines, the scartiness went away. Mickey Rooney and Tony Randall were great. We packed them in every night, turned them away for six weeks."

"I loved every minute of it. You know, I'm such a ham. I always was a ham. Even when I was fighting, I knew this was what I wanted to do."

Robinson's career as an actor and entertainer is on the upswing at 48. He once retired as middleweight champion in 1952 to become a singer and dancer in night clubs at $15,000 a week. This lasted less than two years and he returned to the ring.

As a boxing champion, Sugar Ray was a fine dancer. But as a singer and dancer without the title, he was just ordinary. The best part of his act was his rope-kicking to music.

When he announced his first retirement, Robinson had a record of only three losses in 135 fights. He had won the welterweight title once, the middleweight title twice and had come within a shade of taking the light heavyweight crown from Joey Maxim.

Leading by a wide margin after 13 rounds, the dehydrated

Pirates defeat Mets as Golden Hill opens play

The Golden Hill Pirates defeated the Mets 9-7 Saturday as the Golden Hill Junior Baseball League opened its season with exhibition games and ceremonies.

Lefty Kenneth Hooten went all the way for the Pirates, giving up only four hits, two of them towering home runs by John Ross of the Mets. Bryant Hill accounted for the other hits.

The league, which started regular play Monday, is aimed at creating recreation for about 200 youngsters in the Northwest area.

The league, beginning its first year, consists of 12 teams—the Chargers (boys 17 to 18), Golden Hawks (B team for boys 15 to 16), the Astros and Golden Eagles (C team, 13-14), the Yankees, Angles and Tigers (D team, 11-12), and Kitten teams—Mets, Pirates, Dodgers, and Braves (ages 7-10), and the Roadrunners, boys 7-10 with no ball playing experience.

Honorary umpire of the day was William (Bill) Scott, a Crispus Attucks High School baseball and basketball coach.

Mayor Richard G. Lugar was scheduled to toss out the game ball, but did not attend due to Senator Robert Kennedy's death.

Robert Hooten is president of the Golden Hill league. Other officers are Mrs. Bertha Ross, athletic director; Joe King, publicity chairman; Mrs. Dolores Bryant, secretary; and Artie Brown, treasurer.

Model refuses to name Jim Brown as assailant

HOLLYWOOD—Charges of assault and battery with intent to murder against the greatest fullback in pro football history were dropped here Monday when the victim refused to name her assailant.

Jim Brown, who retired from football to become a successful actor, had been charged in the beating of a 22-year-old model who was found beneath the window of his apartment Sunday night.

According to authorities, Miss Eva Marie Bohn-Chin, who was hospitalized with multiple bruises and cuts about the face and an injured shoulder, refused to name Brown as her assailant, and, since there were no witnesses, there could be no charge made against the 32-year-old actor.

Miss Bohn-Chin was born in Germany of a black father and a white mother. The beautiful model has been trying to get into movies, and was a frequent companion to Brown.

She was found lying against a wall 20 feet below the balcony of the apartment by sheriffs who were investigating "screaming and scuffling" which had been reported by neighbors.

The woman was taken to Los Angeles County-USC Medical Center where her condition was listed as fair. Later, she was transferred to Cedars of Lebanon Hospital without making any statements to the press.

Before the woman was discovered, police went to Brown's apartment and found blood and fragments of hair on the bed, floor and in the bathroom.

Authorities said that upon entering the apartment, one of the deputies was struck in the face by the accused. A complaint charging Brown with felony assault against a police officer was issued.

Deputy District Attorney Phillips Mueller said there was "insufficient evidence" against Brown in the beating of the woman. "She won't name him as her assailant," he stated.

Meanwhile, Brown was released on $12,500 bail. He is scheduled to leave shortly for Spain where he is to co-star with Raquel Welch in an interracial drama, "100 Rifles."

Brown was acquitted of assault and battery in July, 1965, on an 18-year-old girl, Brenda Ayres of Cleveland, who charged that Brown slapped her in the face, stomach and hip and had sex relations with her after giving her whiskey.

They also saved his life.

Jack Thompson inks pack with Pacers

Jack Thompson, 6-foot-1 South Carolina guard, inked a Pacer contract earlier this week, the terms of which were not disclosed.

A third round draft choice of the Baltimore Bullets of the NBA, the flashy ballhandler quarterbacked the Gamecocks of South Carolina University as a starter throughout the past three years.

Thompson, a passing wizard from Brooklyn, is considered one of the best play makers in the nation, and has led the competitive Atlantic Coast Conference for three years in assists. Pacer General Manager, Mike Storen, stated, "Thompson is potentially another Bob Cousy and we look forward to his being a catalyst to our attack next season, as well as being a colorful addition to the Pacer organization."

Thompson joins center Mike Lewis of Duke, guard Phil Wagner of Georgia Tech, and recently acquired Mel Daniels as new Pacers.

Larry Staverman, Pacers' Coach relates, "Jack Thompson should prove to be a very valuable addition to our franchise. He is a crowd pleaser and a good shooter although under the system which was employed by Coach Frank McGuire at South Carolina, Thompson concentrated on quarterbacking the Gamecocks as opposed to shooting."

"Jack is truly a great ballhandler and I would hope that he will strengthen the Pacers' backcourt considerably. Need-

He served in this capacity until June 30, 1957; in July, 1957 he was named an administrative assistant to the superintendent of the city's public schools. He is retiring from this post on June 30.

Dr. Lane is a native of Baltimore, Md., a son of an exemplary family, son of the late George and Mattie Lane. His mother, a graduate of Howard University, Washington, D.C., was a school teacher. A brother, S. Everett Lane is a retired municipal judge of Baltimore.

Dr. Lane attended city schools in Baltimore. He is a graduate of Brown University, Providence, R. I. with a Ph.D. degree. He attended Howard University Law School 1921-23 and studied philosophy and education at Heidelberg University (Germany) 1923-24.

He holds an LL.B. law degree (magna cum laude) from the Dayton University Law School (Dayton, Ohio). He is a member of the Ohio and Indiana bars. He holds an A.M. degree from Indiana University (Bloomington) and received his degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence at I.U. in June 1941.

Again he has been active in civic, religious and educational affairs in the community and sometimes state and national levels. As a speaker and contributing writer he has been acclaimed in all of these fields.

Over a period of forty years Dr. Lane assisted in raising the entire educational status of Negro youths of our metropolitan community and some now widely-heralded citizens of the community, state and nation graduated at Attucks during his tenure of office as principal. Many of these graduates are now leading meaningful lives over the land.

He initiated or inaugurated programs or plans at Attucks that enhanced the stature of the school and his guidance and counsel of youths to the end of motivating the spirit of achievement, have been reflected in records of Attucks graduates on all fronts.

At no time in the history of our country have the service records of an educator and preachers been more significant than the like of Russell A. Lane during his tenure of service at Attucks High School.

We conclude he has been an exemplary citizen, educator, patron of youth and his reputation and character in the community, state or on the national levels have been none other than the estimable. The Recorder salutes a citizen active on all fronts, family head, barrister, educator and administrator.

Reader raps article in paper on center

To The Editor:

We read an article in a major Indianapolis newspaper a few weeks ago about a judge who is attempting to degrade the College Room, simply because of the fact that one of the directors has a prison record and the other was recently arrested for seemingly superficial reasons.

Both of these men have paid their debt to society and now society must grant them privacy. They are now functioning in roles guided by the rules and laws of society and they have a right to be treated as free citizens of this country.

The term "free citizen" denotes, we feel, a person that has the same rights as any other in this so-called Democratic society that has been granted to him by the Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights.

Even if the President of this United States had made these remarks and crude accusations about these two directors, he too would have been entirely misled and unfair in his judgment.

If society can be stricken with pitiful views of a man drowning in ignorance as obviously this man is, then we say this society and those who make and enforce its laws.

Furthermore any newspaper that would print such tripe is not functioning in its true and needed capacity as a form of communication and should be banned from this honorable system.

It is the responsibility of a newspaper or any other form of communication to distribute only that which is factual and impartial and not that which is ugly gossip and unjust implications. If this be the extent of our news media then the dreams of our founding fathers are surely dead.

We have personally witnessed the directors of the College Room and their worthy attempts to contribute a most needed service to this society. Why is there no publicity of the creative and constructive work being done by the College Room? There is no news of their athletic program, their social achievements or their educational progress.

Surely, a newspaper that is willing to print destructive articles must realize that it has the responsibility to print the opposing view—one of constructiveness.

This city should realize that the College Room is not only a center for teenagers of the 19th and College area; it is the only center of social service which is able to function constructively in this entire city.

The directors of this center are the only true social workers because although they do not have college degrees and have not evolved from lily white middle class communities, they are the only persons who have been able to gain the respect and admiration of the adults and teenagers of the community in which the College Room is located.

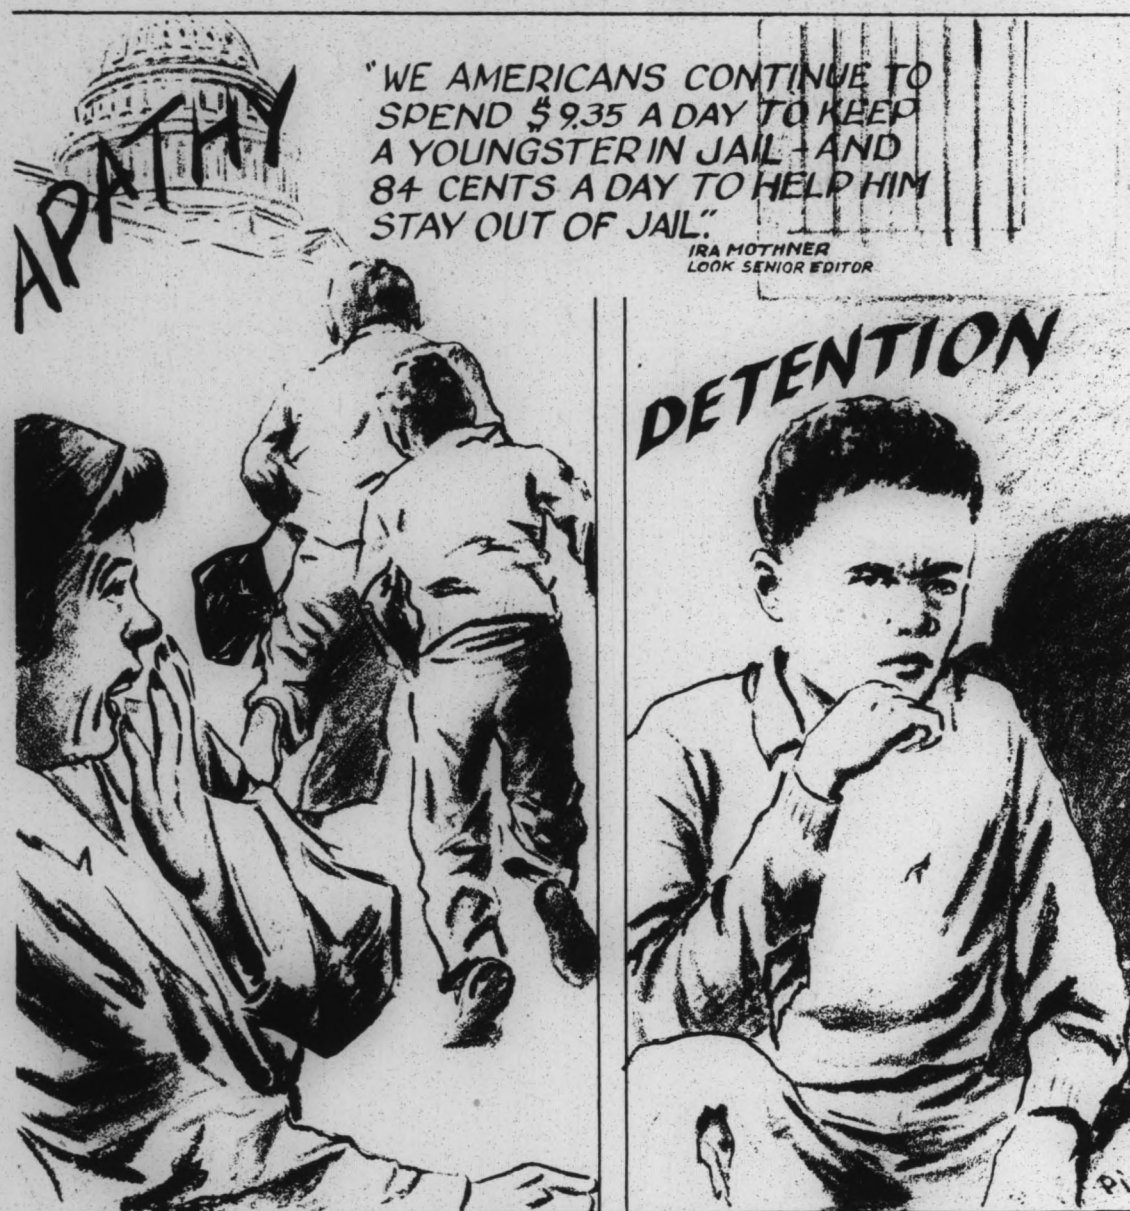

This enables them to have a vast affect upon the community and to produce positive results. Obviously this should interest all the citizens of this city in that the College Room is valuable as a stepping stone to a vast system of social services that will finally have an affect on this society and not serve as a wasted effort of taxpayers.

Yes, the College Room should and must be investigated; not for its destruction but for its magic formula.

For years men have studied the problems of the "slum ghettos," and with all their schooling and efforts have yet to succeed to find a solution. This problem perplexes all social services including CAAP, VISTA, and the Peace Corps.

Yes, all the people of this city should be concerned with the College Room. They should support the College Room with time and money in order that it may continue its glorious work and spread its effectiveness to other institutions of this nation so that this country's posterity will reap all its benefits and human resources.

Teaching Negro history

Black students who have been sitting-in and demonstrating on many college campuses in recent months have many legitimate demands, but few are so obviously right as their demands for courses in Negro history and culture.

I find it hard to imagine how the intellectuals and scholars who run our universities can resist instituting such courses. They aren't just for Negro students—they are for all students since blacks and whites in America share a common history. Because schools at all levels have refused to teach Negro history, Americans of all races are ignorant about their own country's past.

I'm convinced that part of the problems we face today are directly related to the way school texts have erased the Negro contribution to America.

People are always talking about the Pilgrims and the landing of the Mayflower. But how many know that Negroes were in America long before the English? In fact, it is believed that a navigator in Columbus' little fleet that discovered America in 1492 was a black man.

Negroes were with the Spanish explorers who discovered the Pacific Ocean, Mexico, South America, and the American West. Esteban, a black man, was the first non-Indian to set foot on present-day Arizona and New Mexico. And he was just the first great Negro explorer.

Closer to our own day, Matt Henson was the first explorer to reach the North Pole, although he doesn't figure in the history books which give all the credit to Admiral Peary. Nor do the textbooks mention that the first settler in what is now Chicago, was a Negro, Jean Baptiste du Sable.

From the way the newspapers play up the Negro fighting man in Vietnam (quite rightly too) you would think that Negroes never fought in America's other wars. But black men took part in every single war America ever fought.

Crispus Attucks, a runaway slave, was the first casualty in what became the American Revolution, killed by a British bullet in the Boston Massacre. Black men fought at Lexington, Concord, and Bunker Hill. They were with Ethan Allen's Green Mountain Boys, and were among the Minutemen who responded to Paul Revere's famous midnight ride. And they were at Washington's side at Valley Forge.

About 200,000 Negroes fought in the Union Armies during the Civil War, fighting for their own freedom. Black units were with Andrew Jackson in the Battle of New Orleans, with Teddy Roosevelt at San Juan Hill, and with Pershing in World War I. Benjamin Banneker, a famous Negro mathematician, was on the Commission that drew up the plans for the city of Washington, D.C., and the poems of Phillis Wheatley, a slave, were read and admired in America and London. Even the shoes on our feet were made possible by the invention of a shoe-lasting machine by Jan Matzeliger, a black man.

Next time your kids come home from school and say they learned that slaves were relatively content with their lot, tell your local school authorities to stop teaching lies. In little ways, like damaging machines, and playing dumb, and in big ones, like that Nat Turner revolt and the nearly 250 other recorded rebellions, Negroes resisted the slave system. The whole South was in terror of slave revolts, and even the defenders of slavery admitted that Negroes would take every opportunity to run away or to fight for their freedom.

Very little of this finds its way into American classrooms, but it should be taught. Negroes helped to build this country. Our blood was shed in its wars, our sweat was shed in the unpaid labor that its prosperity depended on, and our tears were shed in the countless brutalities of racism. For good or ill, the history of America is a history of the relations between blacks and whites, and no amount of falsified teaching or censorship of the past can erase the glorious contributions of Negroes to the American past—and present.

Police merit Negro co-operation, not hostility, reader asserts

To the Editor:

Having lived in Indianapolis for 68 years, it disturbs me greatly to see the attitude of most people toward police and law enforcement. Without an efficient, well-administered police force, our city, or any city would collapse in chaos. The spirit of the corps of any body of men concerned with the service or protection of the people depends to a great extent upon mental valuation in which they are held by the people. If an officer can depend on the fact that they will respect him and co-operate with him, even aid him when necessary, he will be proud to wear his uniform and to belong to the force instead of being defensive.

A fact that should be impressed on every citizen's mind, whether he be two or 100 is that every call a policeman answers could be his last. He has no way of knowing whether he will meet a killer or some old lady with a cat in a tree. Treat your officers considerably and they will treat you the same.

History has recorded many times the rise of a leader when a crisis was needed. We are at such a time now. The assassination of Martin Luther King came at a crucial time. Time will tell how really crucial it was. Demagogues are rising, saying they are to lead. Let us pray for guidance to our God. Let us walk softly until we are sure.

Newspaper articles reveal the wonderful ways our people are learning to work together for the common good. The woman in Harlem organizing the Harlem Co-Op... The NIFU organized by Jim Brown in Cleveland... Focus in Newark... The Black Star Co-Op in Detroit... OIC Philadelphia.

These are people who are helping themselves as they help our race. They are not asking their country to do something for them... they are doing something for their country. They are regaining their pride of race and of person. That is the way God's world was intended to be.

Mayor Lugar deserves an apology from all the clergy concerned in the mountain-out-of-a-mole-hill episode of the past two weeks. Our mayor was acting on the reasonable assumption that a so-called member of the cloth would be a man of integrity because a man of God is assumed to be an honest, law-abiding citizen who takes his personal and family obligations seriously.

Our local clergy were obviously acting on the same premise as the mayor. I think the time has come to re-examine the qualifications of many of the so-called preachers. The day of the old order is over. A man able to read and "shout" was about all that was needed in the past. I am sure that the religious denominations associated with the same name have suffered much loss of face. I realize it is no novelty to find a jackal warned, one should remove the jackal.

I do not know who is responsible for the maintenance of the integrity of our judges. It is possible to have a criminal case delayed or postponed for so long that it finally is thrown out of court. The poor policeman goes on his own time (which I have never felt was right) time after time to testify in an action that the judge may postpone as soon as he walks to the bench. How can one expect the law-breaker to have any respect for the law, or a judge he can buy off $25 or $50?

I remember when nothing would do but for us to have an all Negro high school. We got in 1927. What do we want now? Complete desegregation of course. Guess if we wait another 40 years we will be back to a segregated high school again.

Voice From The Gallery

by ANDREW W. RAMSEY

The Kennedy killer was a puppet

Immediately after the gunning down of Senator Robert Kennedy, the assassin was apprehended and handed over to the police. Several hours later the gunman was found out that the gunman was a Jordanian native by the name of Sirhan Sirhan. When Mr. Kennedy died several hours later the Sirhan individual was charged with the crime of murder.

Those are the bare facts. The question as to motive has caused the police and others to go into a vast amount of speculation, but it is the opinion of this columnist that one needs to know more than the psychic make-up of the assassin and whether he had accomplished to come up with a clear answer to the question of who killed Robert Kennedy.

We may go along with the fact that the Sirhan Sirhan individual owned the gun and that he held it and pulled the trigger which caused the distinguished candidate for the presidency of the United States to die, but that still does not answer the question of who the actual killer was.

It is a little concealed fact that bigotry is the stock and trade of millions of Americans and that this bigotry exists in high as well as low places in our society. It is this bigotry which killed Jesus of Nazareth, Medgar Evers, John F. Kennedy and the Rev. Martin Luther King. The tragedy is that it is so rampant in present day America and that it is kept alive by highly respectable people, the news media, schools and churches as well as many other areas of our national life.

It is even fashionable for candidates to run for the highest offices in the various communities, states and the country itself on platforms of unadulterated hatred for certain groups, individuals and ideas.

And it is no secret that many of the news media which poured vitriolic words on Senator Ken-neddy and his aspiration to seek the highest office within the gift of the American people. Although these newspapers, magazines and other mass media have copiously mourned the death of Mr. Kennedy, they have not admitted that they were actually pulling some of the strings that caused the puppet to act.

The Americans in high places who have clamored for the impeachment of Chief Justice Earl Warren and members of the U.S. Supreme Court have had a hand in keeping alive and spreading the bigotry which is tearing at the bowels of our national body politic.

The reception and the treatment which Senator Kennedy got from the local newspapers during his campaign for votes in our recent primary election shocked the outsiders who came into the state either to help the campaign or merely as observers. And now that the deed is done these same newspapers join in the national mourning just like the murderer who did not know that the gun was loaded.

It is a seldom mentioned fact that schools and Sunday schools up to date have done very poor jobs in lessening the endemic hatreds which too many people get from their mothers' knees or from their communities and most of them are not about to begin to do the job for the fear that reprisals will be taken by the communities in which they operate.

Guilt of the crime of teaching group hatred also are the employers who refuse jobs or upgrading to those who happened to have a high degree of visibility, or whose religion differs from that popular in the region. Among the guilty are those who flee from citizens of darker hue or of a different national origin and those who maintain other types of institutions which cater only to WASPS (white Anglo-Saxon).

Included in the above groups is a large portion of the so-called decent citizens of our land. They are the substantial people, the pillars of society. They would not stoop to murder nor to the commission of bodily crimes, yet they are the real culprits who teach hatred by their actions. They get the message over very subtly but very well that it is all right to hate individuals and groups who differ in skin pigmentation or ideology from that of the dominant group.

It is to be hoped that the new commission recently appointed by President Johnson not only looks into the causes of the rash of assassinations of so many American leaders in a period of five years, will come up with suggestions of how to rid America of the bigotry which is spreading like a cancer in our society.

It seems that if we can spend millions of dollars annually to study the cure of physical and mental ailments, we can ill afford not to spend money on preventing the soul killing disease of bigotry.

For thinking Americans it is apparent that the murders of Evers, President Kennedy, Martin Luther King and Robert Kennedy were acting in accordance with the dictates of the bigotry which permeates the land. Whether they acted alone or in a conspiracy, they were acting in behalf of their fellow bigots whose number is legion.

The freedom of conscience which is guaranteed by our constitution, is being punished by the rumormongers of American trained bigots. As we shed our collective tears over this most recent dastardly assassination, let's start the machinery to work so that we shall have no more of these heinous crimes.

Sunday School Lesson

by REV. J. T. HIGHBAUGH, SR.

Larger Lesson—James 1-2. Lesson Print: James 2:14-16. Memory Verse: James 1:22. 2:17. Aim: That adults who believe in Christ may be living proof of their deep belief in Christ. Time: A, D. 45. Place: Jerusalem.

The book of James was written to the 12 tribes scattered abroad, to the Jews of the Dispersion. It seems not to have been written by either of the apostles James. As we remember James, son of Zebedee, was martyred about 44 A. D. (Acts 12:1-2) and since it does not mention him as an apostle it is assumed he is the Lord's brother (Matt. 13:55), an unbeliever during our Lord's ministry. After His resurrection, he was converted (1 Cor. 15:7; Acts 1:4) and became quite a moving spirit in the church council at Jerusalem (Acts 12:17; 15:13 and 21:18).

1. Faith Without Works Is Profitless: James 2:14-16. 2. Faith Without Works Is Dead: James 2:17-19. 3. Faith Displays Itself by God's Deeds: James 2:20-26; Heb. 11:8-19, 31.

1. Faith Without Works Is Profitless: James here presents the supposed case of a man who claims the faith and new birth but shows no evidence of having clothed the naked or fed the hungry. This would have proven his profession.

To James this kind of faith is vain and fruitless. This is not in conflict with doctrinal teachings of Paul's idea of justification by faith in Romans 4:5. "To him that worketh not but believeth on Him that justified the ungodly, his faith is counted to him for righteousness."

Both James and Paul are talking about the same kinds of faith, but different kinds of works. Paul argues against a man feels he earns his salvation with God. James is talking about deeds which prove to men that the man has had a change from inside because he believed in Christ. James says if he is born again his faith will fruit out to the naked in clothes if he has them and his faith will fruit out to the hungry in food if he has food to give. He can't help it.

2. Faith Without Is Dead: He goes on to say a tree that has no bud, no bloom or fruit is dead. A Christian, irrespective how loud his profession, who does not demonstrate his love and faith in God by sharing with his fellowman has dead faith.

James says a man cannot have faith without work because they are companion graces. James does not put them against one another but makes faith the spring of good works. He gives a demonstration of even devils (demons) who believed and shuddered (Matt. 8:28, 29; Luke 4:33, 34). In this New Testament these demons shrieked and slobbered but this was not proof of real faith since no deeds of goodness came out of their experience.

3. Faith Displays Itself in God's Deeds: James gives instances in the Old Testament. He shows how Abraham sacrificed his own son as proof of his belief in God.

Look at these deeds in Hebrews showing the elders' faith. 1. We understand that the worlds were formed by the word of God. This is the day spring of knowledge, Heb. 11:3.

2. Able gave a better offering to God than his brother (Heb. 11:4). This lay the foundation of gratitude among men.

3. Each was changed in character by his faith. Heb. 11:5-6. 4. Noah preached and condemned the world of his day saving a remnant. Heb. 11:7.

5. Abraham and Sarah began a new race by faith. Heb. 11:8-19.

6. Isaac, Jacob and Joseph raised a race by faith and deeds Heb. 11:20-22.

7. Moses and His parents awakened a sleeping slave people and led them out. Heb. 11:23-29.

The others—Joshua, Gideon, Deborah, David, Rahab, Jephthah and Barak—all could sing in unison with Paul and James: My faith looks up to Thee Thou Lamb of Calvary Saviour Divine

Now here us while we pray Take all our sins away Oh let me from this day be holy Thine or

We have come this far by faith Leaning on the Lord, Leaning on the Lord.

Attucks' community service lauded by Mrs. Kuykendall

Crispus Attucks High School has served its community and the larger community 40 years. The quality of that service has been and is being demonstrated by thousands of Attucks alumni who are good solid citizens; by those who have found success in a wide variety of professions and businesses; by those who have been awarded PHDS and Phi Beta Kappa keys from America's most prestigious colleges and universities.

It is a proper for the community to recognize the devoted work and leadership of those who have been responsible for all this quality service—those who because of retirement or promotion will no longer serve the community specifically through Crispus Attucks. Such people include the three former principals, all of whom live here—Mr. Mathias Nalox, Mr. Russell A. Lane and Mr. Alexander M. Moore, and those who are retiring this year, as well as retirees from Crispus Attucks.

Those retiring this year are Miss Phyllis Water, Miss Letty

Wickliffe, Mrs. Nancy Powell and Mrs. Lorene T. Turner, all of whom have been superior teachers and a great influence for good in the lives of thousands of Crispus Attucks alumni across the United States and around the world. They served because they lead and they are leaders because they chose to serve.

Paper's 'biased' brutality case story blasted

To the Editor:

Your coverage of the "police brutality" case in the June 1 issue of the Recorder makes the same error as you accuse the Star and News of making—that pre-judging the plaintiff and or the defendants before the grand jury has ruled. If you are disenchanted with justice as meted out in this country, remember that in the USSR the Rev. Mr. Ward would now be well on his way to Siberia.

A couple of other false accusations you could have made of the "white power structure" (whatever that is) were that Rev. Ward did not testify because he was threatened with violence and that the "predominantly white audience" at the captains' hearing was really not "open" and that black people were enclosed in some obscure way.

FULL SPONSORSHIP OF "JULIA," the new half-hour comedy-drama series starring Diahann Carroll, which will premiere on the NBC Television Network in the 1968-69 season (Tuesdays, 8:30-9 p.m. NYT), was announced today by John M. Otter, Vice President, Television Network Sales, NBC. Sponsors are Mattel Inc.; Menley & James Laboratories; and as previously announced, General Foods Corporation. In "Julia," Miss Carroll portrays a young widow with a six-year-old son. She is a registered nurse in the health office of an industrial corporation. Lolyd Nolan as Dr. Morton Chegley is in charge of the office.

WHAT'S HAPPENING HERE, and we do mean HERE! Dig: An ofay was brutally-beaten without just provocation, according to informants, t'other day in the 500 block of the Avenue...and the night of the parade another ofay was struck with a brick as he waited for the traffic light to change... add to these incidents the many others, like a gang of doods beating up a young white boy scout on N. Meridian... plus running in gangs downtown knocking people down and causing general pandemonium... which was so bad that there is talk of changing the parade route. These are not dumb blacks from the deep south, who are spreading wholy hell on Naptown streets, NOSIREEE... they are young boys from our local schools and some from North of 30th St...and you better believe it.

MOST RECENTLY young hoodlums are molesting and attacking ofays and Negroes as they leave Riverside Park... and they are aged from 10 to 20. It seems that the younger they are—the more VICIOUS they are, and we ain't just clickin' these few teeth, something is radically wrong with these kids...and your guess as to the causes, is as good as MINE, WHERE IS YOUR CHILD? WHAT IS HE DOING AFTER SCHOOL? WHERE DOES HE SPEND MOST OF HIS TIME? IS HE WEARING EXPENSIVE SHIRTS, SHOES AND SUITS? IS HE WORKING? DOES HE RUN IN GANGS? DOES HE GO TO CHURCH?...THE YMCA...THE NEIGHBORHOOD CENTER? OR DOES HE SPEND MOST OF HIS TIME LOAFING ON STREET CORNERS WAITING FOR MOM TO COME HOME AND FIX HIS DINNER? Your answer to many of these questions should start you THINKING about your CHILD...and what he does with his spare time.

AN INFORMANT told us about a group of youngsters who were openly playing cards on a table at Burger Chef restaurant on 16th Illinois...and the way they act in Murphy's (grinding cigaret butts into the pretty tile floor with ash trays everywhere), and how they bully police officers stationed in certain downtown stores. And the poor bus operators catch plain h--l. Some so far as to try and have sex relations right on the bus...plus gambling and cursing like the oldtime stevedore or alley ruffian.

DON'T GET ME WRONG... they are our children...and we love 'em... God bless each and every one of 'em...but somebody has got to get the message over to them... The parents... the teachers and the preachers... and the social workers. Some of the people will have to come down out of their IVORY TOWERS and get with the action... they MUST realize that they are of the same breed... all these fine words you read in the newspapers from guys glued to a handsome salary are alright, but they need to put some of this high tone talk into ACTION. Come on down, fellas, and shake hands with the nitty gritty... It's not going to contaminate you—you once knew these parts and these people... Only you have changed... which is fine—but remember Sweet Papa and sweet Sue and Lonesome Lou, are still around and would appreciate a nice hello, every once in a while. A little word of cheer might help the situation and give some of these folk a brand new perspective on life.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT even the policewomen have forsaken these parts. Youngsters from 17 to 21 are running wild. If these policewomen were put on patrol of taverns in our districts instead of working downtown stores or as clerks in headquarters, we wouldn't have so much open vice in our districts. Some of these youngsters have never seen a Negro policewoman. Some of the oldtimers haven't seen any in the last 10 years or longer. All of these high-sounding agencies and task forces should meet the situation head on...There is plenty of work to do and we want to keep things 'KOOL' in the hot and torrid days ahead. Will Pharoah heed!

IN THE NEWS—Did you know that Governor James A. Rhodes of Ohio, has just settled the two-month-old strike against Columbus' B&T Metals and Rex companies. The agreement means approximately 175 workers, most of whom are Negroes, will be returning to their jobs within a week or ten days. President Lawrence Tolbert (a Negro) of both companies, said, B&T Metals, it is understood, is the largest manufacturing firm owned and managed by Negroes in the United States.

GUNS—According to an article in a daily newspaper, 20,000 Hoosier civilians are licensed to carry pistols... And pistol sales are up nearly 58 per cent... A State Police Superintendent Robert A. O'Neal says the reasons are "the increase in crime racial unrest and the normal human self-preservation attitude."

The article by Martin Biemer quotes Capt. Sam Burch, assistant commander for State Police central records, as saying: "his staff can't keep up with the increase in sales and permits."

Further the article says: "There is no doubt that Hoosiers are arming themselves. And Indiana Law presents few problems for the man who really wants a gun." (There Tis!) JOHNNY HARRIS, the well-Turn to Page 11

"GOLDEN BOY" with Sammy Davis Jr. in the starring role plus Lola Falana, the 24-year-old dancing sensation from Philadelphia scored a real triumph at the Palladium theater in London, England. Critics were loud in their praise of the show which knocked the London-towners out.

July 22 through Aug. 8. The choir, under sponsorship of the American Friendship Club, an interracial goodwill group, will highlight the tour with performances at Jamaica's Independence Day ceremonies in Kingston, Montego Bay, and Mandeville.

ANOTHER "SOUL" CONDUCTOR

DALLAS—(NPI)—Paul Freeman, 33, recently was appointed associate conductor of the Dallas Symphony Orchestra and became the second Negro to win such an appointment. The first was Henry Lewis of Los Angeles who became music director of the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra. Freeman last year won second prize in the Dimitri Mitropoulos conducting competition.

LENA HORNE TO STAR WITH WIDMARK: In one of the major casting coups of the year, Lena Horne, one of America's foremost entertainers, has been signed to star opposite Richard Widmark in Universal City Studios' dramatic story of the old west, "Patch," it was announced by Jennings Lang, senior vice-president. While Miss Horne has appeared in a number of screen musicals, her role of Widmark's sweetheart and later his wife will be her first straight dramatic characterization. Richard E. Lyons is producing and Robert Totten directing "Patch," one of the most exciting pictures on Universal's 1968 schedule.

Getting music to sound right in a studio is a matter of getting a perfect balance of elements.

The same thing, I expect, applies to getting a great gin...a perfect balance of elements...dryness, flavor, the works. That's what I find in Gordon's Gin.

Roy Eaton, Composer, Pianist; Music Director of Benton & Bowles, Inc., one of the nation's largest advertising agencies; winner of Kosciuszko Foundation first Chopin Award; international recitalist; recording artist for Mace Records.

Gordon's Gin, created in London, England in 1769. It's the biggest seller in England, America, and the world.

known drummer, is returning to his home-town, Cadiz, Ky., where he will spend some time convalescing on his farm. Incidentally, he was baptized last Wed. in the Easter Star Baptist Church.

Singer Miriam Makeba, who recently married black power advocate Stokely Carmichael, is reported to be in the process of buying a $70,000 home in Washington, D.C. Irv Kupcinet, said in his syndicated column in a local daily: "In reply to queries: It was Miriam Makeba, who earns big money as a singer, who plunked down $70,000 for a Washington home - not her husband, Stokely Carmichael."

HUNGRY--People are starving in Mississippi and maybe other southern states, while America continues to send billions in foreign aid to other countries...But they can't find enough money to take care of the poor in this country. Did you dig the astronomical amounts of money sent to the foreign countries as reported in The Star. A total of 122 (billion) 358 (million) 500,000 (these are dollars, baby, believe when I tell you. In fact the list in The Star was 20 inches deep double column. Korea 6,676,700,000, Republic of China 4,799,500,000, Turkey, 5,039,800,000, Pakistan, 3,079,800,000, United Kingdom, 9,044,900,000, Italy, 6,092,900,000, France (de Gaulle) 9,409,600,000, and we are talking about billions of dollars, even though we omitted the dollar sign. And there is Vietnam with 4,590,100,000. And Negroes are starving (ome whites, too) in the world's richest country.

This said that Harry Bela fonte had a $50,000 insurance policy on his friend Dr. Martin Luther King, which was turned over to the King foundation. We can't go along with Muhammad Ali (Cassius Clay) who is asking for a separate for Negroes. Will somebody please tell who's fighting for what over on this side of the track.

WONDER if any of our many organization are looking into discrimination charges leveled at RCA a few weeks back in a letter to this newspaper. We have talked to other employees and they say all of the charges are true...and that some of the foremen use abusive language at times when talking to Negro employees...and, according to our informants, some of the colored girls are rather rambunctious and permit the grays to pat on them and to say whatever they want to them. They just sit, stand and grin. And some of the girls come to work like they are going to a party. Which they feel is in bad taste.

HERE'S hoping that our good friend Leroy (sporty) Johnson, who planed down from Boston for the Kentucky Derby, will find time to let us know that everything is okay-dokey in the city of the beloved Kennedy's. (Amen)

In the runs scored department, Aaron on the same date, notched 1,539, compared to Max Carey, 1961 Hall of Famer, who scored 1,545 runs for Pittsburgh and Brooklyn, during the 23-year period from 1910-33.

this man alive."

The speaker apparently had realized, despite the tragedy, the events after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy (Nov. 22, 1963), whose assassin was killed before he could be brought to trial or questioned extensively.

Grier and Johnson had been walking beside the Presidential candidate just as the shots were fired. Fortunately not to have been injured themselves, the two grabbed the alleged assassin and wrestled the pistol from his hands and held him until authorities arrived.

They appeared to be the only two in the crowd with level heads for almost everyone else (for the exception of a very few) had revenge in mind.

The two are a credit to their race and country. Johnson is the 1960 Olympic decathlon champion (winner of 10 events).

The UCLA graduate carried the flame into Rome's Stadio Olimpico for the games. He was a close, personal friend of the Senator's and was an invited guest at his historic funeral.

Johnson will be seen and heard by millions as a NBC news commentator during this summer's Olympics in Mexico City.

Minutes before he was shot, Senator Kennedy jokingly had said of Grier, 300-pound member of the famed front four of the Los Angeles Rams football team:

"Rosey Grier said he'd take care of anybody who didn't vote for me." The crowd cheered.

Million Dollar Oil Man: Curt Andrews

Curt Andrews is a successful Standard Oil Dealer. His success comes because of the way he uses the million dollars in equipment, facilities and products Standard Oil has put in his hands.

He makes them work for his customers—and their cars are better for it.

As Curt says, "They're long but happy hours because I like to meet my customers... they're my neighbors and friends."

One good dealer doesn't make an oil company great...but, 29,000 good ones do.

You expect more from Standard and you get it.*

Region III's buses will leave Indianapolis June 18 and return June 20. Transportation and housing will be furnished by the international union. Black and white Chrysler employees wanting to go to Washington must contact their service representative or regional office no later than noon Friday, June 14.

George P. Jones, assistant Region III director, and Elwood Black, president of Local 550, are helping to coordinate plans for the trip.

The intolerable conditions of the poverty-stricken have been protested through the erection of plywood tents in Washington, D.C. near the Lincoln Memorial called Resurrection City. Hundreds of the poor, both black and white, living in the mammoth city will march Wednesday for an ultimate better living.

The UAW's national participation in the Poor People's March is a follow-up of its various observations in memory of the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., president of SCLC.

Dr. King dreamed of a city of the needy camping in Washington, D.C. and visualized a mass march in protest of the lax by Congress in doing something about the problems of the poor.

Resurrection City and the Poor People's March has received national attention with finance and commodities coming from every section of the country.

The residents have lived in mud and have survived terrific mud and torrential rains. "We ain't going to let no flood turn us around," was their creed.

Besides the major march Wednesday others have been held by Resurrection City occupants. Rev. Abernathy has pledged that the poor will stay in Washington until some constructive and acceptable response comes from the lackadaisical Congress.

Mrs. Jauita Talley, secretary-bookkeeper of Local 550 of the UAW, noted in reference to the Chrysler employees participating "I hope they are very sincere."

Rustin

ordinator of the June 19 "solidarity march" as successor to Rustin. Seemingly his uncertainty concerns the ability of the Rev. Mr. Abernathy to manage the movement.

Mr. Tucker is executive director of the local Urban League. He confirmed that Rev. Abernathy, SCLC president has asked him to assume the post vacated by Rustin. He raised questions about the leadership and tactics of the campaign. But this week it now appears that he has accepted the post.

Seemingly Rev. Abernathy sought to minimize the split with Rustin, but it is reported that the issue involves his far more militant constituents.

Among campaign objectives for the proposed June 19 march it is said that Rustin had not stressed jobs, a guaranteed income for the unemployed, major housing and welfare changes and the war in Vietnam. These issues concerned a really revolutionary change rather than mere reform of the system, it was stated.

In another statement Rev. Abernathy said: "I feel very, very secure in my leadership. As I have said to you over and over again, the board of directors of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference is behind me."

Rustin is a strong supporter of President Johnson's administration. However, he is a pacifist and served a jail term as a war objector during World War II. But he has close contacts with militant elements in the ranks of organized labor.

Parkboard gets bids on center at Riverside

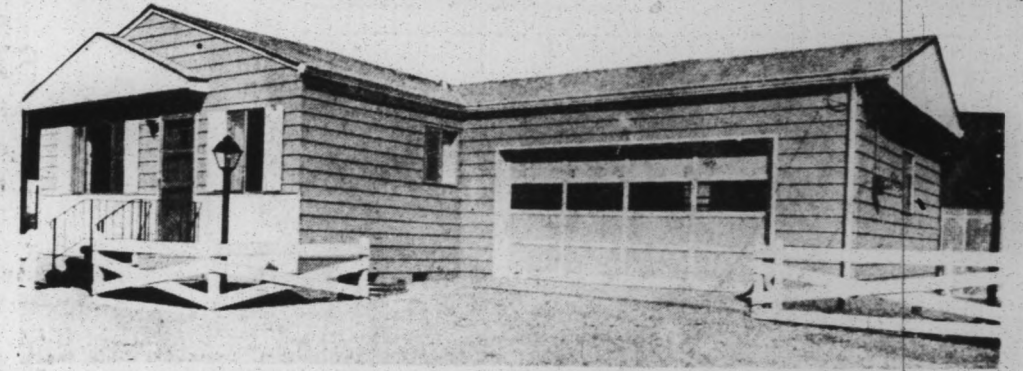

The Metropolitan Park Board revealed last week-end bids on construction of the proposed Riverside community center exceeded by more than $200,000 the original estimates.

Originally the cost of construction was placed at about $500,000, however, the low bid on general construction was submitted at $465,184. This did not include the indoor-outdoor swimming pool.

Construction with only an outdoor pool was estimated at more than $597,000. However, it embraced a proposal for a larger pool than originally.

Tuning in on ANDERSON

By Madelyn Irvin — Phone 644-5179

ANDERSON — Among the leading speakers of the 79th International Convention of the Church of God here June 17-23 will be Dr. Eugene Sterner and Rev. James Earl Massey. Dr. Sterner, who is the speaker elect for the church's international Christian brotherhood hour, will conduct morning services at 9:30 a.m. daily Wednesday through Saturday in Warner auditorium.

Rev. Massey, pastor of Metropolitan Church of God in Detroit, Mich., will give the keynote address at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday opening the week long program.

Surveying the audience of more than 500 persons at the annual Urban League dinner held recently, Dr. Whitney M. Young Jr., executive director of the national affiliate, commented on the beautiful diversity focused on a common goal.

He indicated an anxiety however, that this was a one-night stand in commitment to the cause of human rights which might then be ignored the other 364 days. He reminded the audience that he had many baseball players before Jackie Robinson, but we didn't have any Branch Rickey.

Dr. Young was optimistic for the future. The poor and the disinherited have an ally, the young people regardless of color not the hippies, the flower children, but the 50 percent born in affluence who no longer are as materialistically preoccupied as the older generation has been.

He also offered encouragement from the conference held by business leaders in labor and in public office who now recognize that the Negro must be helped to productivity or be a drain on public funds. He quoted them as saying "racism has got to go."

The Urban League leader noted that the conclusion on the presidential commission on rioting had not been submitted by H. Rap Brown but by a group of conservatives who set out to identify the conspirators, Chinese or other communists, who were investigating these riots. He feels that their recommendations cannot be ignored anymore than a medical order.

It doesn't take long to get rid of racism, declared Dr. Young. He told of a Mississippi recruit to Vietnam who had fallen in love within a week with his Negro sergeant who was skilled in survival techniques.

To stop rioting he suggested a time table of progress or rewards of goals set so much on improvement in housing in a specific time to improve in a specified time the achievement and school work a specified degree in a certain length of time. Cleveland didn't have a riot, he said, although conditions were explosive there. But they had a time table, a hope that Nov. 7 would put Carl Stokes in office as mayor.

He called on Anderson to be a Little Rock in reverse. People have been working long and hard at segregation, he said. Our hope depends on an equally imaginative effort to work at inclusion, he stated.

Morris Rossen received the Urban League award of the year for 1968 for outstanding service in human rights in the community.

Mrs. Earl Streety was presented a 15-year pin for her outstanding service in the Urban League Chapter. The 10-year award was given to Mrs. Edith Steans, Chet Craig, Ray Humphrey, Jess Johnson, W.B. McCrery and Oscar Taylor. Five year pins went to L.C. May, Francis Kienly and Edward Brooks. Judge Carl T. Smith made the presentation.

J.E. Flanagan brought greetings on behalf of the city. Mayor Frank Allison was master-of-ceremonies. Jack Hiday sang "I Believe" and the "Impossible Dream." Zebdee Christian introduced the members of the local Urban League board, the arrangements committee and junior hostesses. Rev. Harold Leininger gave the benediction.

Lt. Huston Broadnax has served with the Anderson Police Department since June 22, 1956, and is desk lieutenant with the local force. Prior to joining the Anderson department he was employed at Delco-Remy Division.

Lt. Broadnax served with the U.S. Signal Corps from 1943 to 1945 and during World War II he was decorated with the European Theatre Medal and good conduct medal while in military service. Lt. Broadnax was discharged at the rank of T-4 on Dec. 27, 1945.

He is a graduate of Anderson High School and has resided in Anderson since birth.

Lt. Broadnax is a member of the Masonic Lodge and has served as past commander of the American Legion. He is also a member of the Fraternal Order of Police.

Lt. Broadnax and his wife, Eugenia, reside at 1903 Hendrick.

Spring flowers decorated the tables for the initial recent mother-daughter tea for six girls of Westvale School.

Greetings were extended to mothers and other guests by the school nurse, Mrs. Ann Hull. Another highlight of the program was a film presented from a table decorated with spring flowers in attractive arrangements.

Mrs. Earl Kirkpatrick and the school secretary, Mrs. Wert W. Bolen, poured. Assisting were Mrs. Hull Kirkpatrick and Miss Becky Kirkpatrick.

About 25 children from the Ann Douglas Robinson Day Care Center had an outing from Anderson to Elwood recently via the Penn-Central rail system between the two towns.

The non-profit nursery is currently housed in the basement of the Central Christian Church at 10th and Jackson.

Admissions are still available to the pre-school child and those of kindergarten age. A summer program for school age children will be initiated this summer. About 10 enrollments are available for the latter.

Fees are based on a sliding scale, according to the ability of the parents to pay. Hours of the day care center are from 6 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. The program often includes experience in art, drama, music, and community living.

Children are fed a hot lunch with snacks in the morning and afternoon following a nap period. Further information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Alice McKinley at the church.

Cub Scout Pack 319 sponsored by the Wilson Boy's Club received its charter in a special ceremony recently.

Rudolph Corbin, neighborhood commissioner, and Ray Humphrey, institutional representatives of the boy's club, received the charter.

New Bob Cats Club members are Jan Francis, Paul Branham, Robert Irvin, Mike McCarty, and David Jackson.

Twenty six graders from Westvale received certificates in the Delco-Remy Engineering Center auditorium climaxing the Anderson Urban League's counseling and guidance project at the grade level for Hazelwood, Shadeland, and Westvale Schools during the school year.

Along with the certificates, gold pins were awarded to the 10 students maintaining the highest scholastic record for the year and also to the 10 who made the greatest improvement in grades.

Those taking part included Douglas Manuel, Johnny Cook, Randy Henson, Charles Dickson, Don Steans, Dwight Shookney, Philip Johnson, Mike Beatty, Floyd Hopgood, Jeffery Board, Joan Dickson, Rosa Dickson, Daisy Fuller, Shirley Beard, Marquita Hayes, Dona Washington, N. Harp, B. Lewis, and Leonora Hudson.

Those ill in the community include Emery Wilson, Lisa Jackson, Adair Gibbs, Mrs. Betty Hopgood, Mrs. Margaret Wilkerson, Mrs. Addie Pool, Alisa Wood, Mary Goodman, Emma People, Mrs. Mollie Allen, Mrs. Ethel Wilkerson, Louis Carter, Ruby Page, Master David Evans, Mrs. Betty Bell, Mrs. Margaret Davis, Harry Willis, Mrs. Minnie Odom, Miss Sharon Patterson, and Mrs. Emma White.

Mrs. Agnes V. Thomas, 1407 Locust, a resident of Anderson for more than 60 years, died at Community Hospital. She had been ill a month. Mrs. Thomas was a member of Sherman Street Church of God.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Williams and Mrs. Lucinda McGee of Los Angeles, Ca.; a brother, Robert Ross of Pontiac, Mich., and other relatives.

Funeral services were at Sherman Street Church of God. The pastor, Rev. E. Foggs, officiated. Brook Memorial Chapel was in charge. Burial was in East Maplewood Cemetery.

EVANSVILLE — Rev. Robert A. Hill, formerly of Evansville, is now pastor of the Macedonia Baptist Church of Paducah, Ky.

Rev. Hill was on June 2 commissioned a "Kentucky Colonel." It is the highest citizen award from the Commonwealth of Kentucky. The presentation was made by Al Rae, businessman of Paducah.

The award was given because of his achievement made with the completion of a newly completed church and educational building, and his contributions to the community.

Mr. Rae said "Paducah is a better community because of this prophet. He wears the robes of his calling with dignity and splendor, helping us to better understanding God's laws God's commandments and God's will for his people."

Rev. Hill is now the Honorable Rev. Robert A. Hill.

The whole world is in deep sorrow due to the assassination of a man who struggled hard in his early age to make America a better place to live. But let us pray that his soul lives on. This world seems at odds when one tries to obey the 10 commandments of the Bible. "Love ye one another." But righteousness will prevail.

The Women's Missionary Union of New Hope Baptist Church held its annual mission day the past Sunday evening. A panel of four women discussed the theme of the meeting, "Standing Together for God in Times Like These."

Members of the panel were Miss Jean Davis, Miss Willie Thomas, Miss Ruth Hetzel and Mrs. Eugenia Brown. It was well attended and the ladies brought out some interesting points.

Services for Mrs. Ella Broshers, 85, of Bellemeade Ave. were held the past week in Earl L. Jones Mortuary, with burial in Oak Hill Cemetery. Mrs. Broshers made her home with a daughter.

Capitol Avenue Park organized through efforts of Mrs. Young

Mrs. Fannie Young, 76-year-old senior citizen of 2342 N. Capitol, has "always loved children" and for this reason a year ago she was instrumental in the creation of the Capitol Avenue Park on property owned by the city.

Seeing so many children cross busy Capitol enroute to her house and having nothing to do inspired Mrs. Young to develop the park. Mrs. Young is receiving no financial assistance and has used her own money when necessary.

However, the park in the wooded area has met with flaws due to insufficient equipment and a muddy stream of water which is an overflow from Fall Creek and poses a safety problem for the children.

The idea for the fun place was conceived entirely by Mrs. Young who felt the need for such a facility in the near northwest side community. It is the only park in the immediate area.

She was aided in her initial effort by Ralph Trotter, a roomer at the Capitol Avenue address. Mr. Trotter assisted Mrs. Young in securing three picnic tables, a sliding board, a swing set with four seats, and two basketball goal posts — all of which were donated by the city and Park Department.

In addition to Mr. Trotter, Charles Lewis, who was a Democratic nominee for a seat in the House of Representatives, has lent his assistance. During the campaign Mr. Lewis pledged support to Mrs. Young and promised her win or lose he was going to help her seek aid. He has done this and fondly refers to the park as his "Project B."

Mayor Richard G. Lugar heard about the popular park Thursday, June 6, when Mrs. Young, Mr. Lewis, Miss Mary Farrell and Mrs. Cornelia Thompson spoke with him about it. The mayor assured the trio of his interest and said he would bring the worthy project to the attention of the Metropolitan Park Board. The mayor was given pictures of the park.

Directly needed is a fence to enclose the dirty body of water which trickles from Fall Creek and has become a dangerous swimming pool for the neighborhood children.

Mrs. Young also spelled out the need for a restroom, water fountain, additional swings, a portable swimming pool, and most important — a matron.

She is highly qualified for the matron duties since she lives close to the park and is constantly entertaining the youngsters. Mrs. Young is experienced having been a matron at Military Park.

The weeds need to be cut and the basketball court needs asphalt paving.

"It is sad to watch eight or nine children standing by waiting a chance to swing," Mrs. Young inferred. The devoted northside lady estimated that from 75 to 100 children frequent the park a day during the summer. The girls have formed a club to teach arts and crafts to the younger children.

"I hope to instill in the children the desire to live a better life. Children have to get a better life. I have always loved children," Mrs. Young pointed out.

Mrs. Young is the widow of the late Harry Young, a 27-year employee of General Hospital. She is a native of Bowling Green, Ky., and has lived here since 1941.

Her father, the late Rev. James Jackson, was pastor of Jones Tabernacle AMEZ Church. Mrs. Young is a staunch member of Jones Tabernacle AMEZ Church. She has been a member of Good Samaritan Baptist Church since 1928.

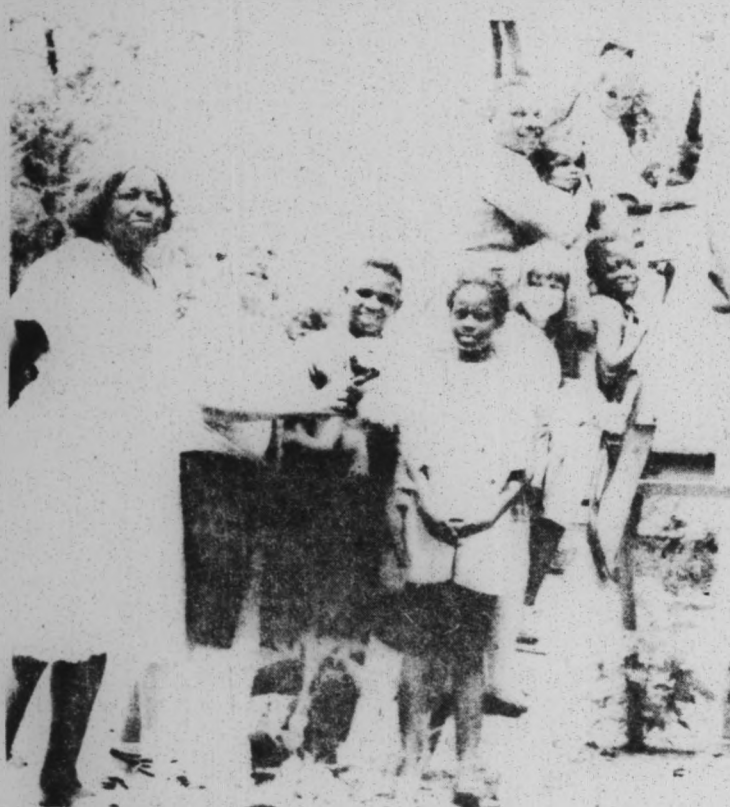

Mrs. Young was previously active in the central, state, and national Baptist conventions. Religiously inclined, she converted many westside youths to Christ while matron at Military Park.

Mrs. Young has been active in Democratic politics for 40 years. She is precinct committeewoman in the seventh ward and third precinct and serves as secretary of the Seventh Ward Democratic Club.

For two years the dedicated public servant was superintendent of the Household of Ruth of which she is a member. She is affiliated with the Federation of Associated Clubs (FAC).

Voice of the Eastside

By MARY P. MCGUIRE

"Women can make a home happy by knowing what they have in the home and learning to live with it. Make every man feel like he is a king in his own house. Have the table set whether you have dinner ready or not. Look your best when he comes home." These timely remarks were made recently by Mrs. Emma Edwards Johnson of Christ Missionary Baptist Church during Women's day services.

Mrs. Johnson was introduced by Mrs. Mattie Fannings, New Bethel Baptist Church missionary president. Among others appearing in the women's day services were Mmes. Vera Hunter, Mary Warren, Esther Stone, La Verne Powell, Helen Hill, Catherine Walston, and Bernice Swiney, and the Mt. Olive Harmonette Ensemble.

I regret I arrived too late to get the names of persons participating in the skit, "Negro Women of Courage and Achievement." I am told they were very good. Rev. Willard Nance extended the invitation.

Due to the death of her husband, John P. Wade, Mrs. Norveline Wade was unable to be present to introduce the speaker. The church and friends mourn with her doing this hour. Mr. Wade was a very fine deacon of the church.

Women's day services were also held at Carter Memorial Church recently with the missionary president, Mrs. Lucie Love in charge. Rev. Estee Adams is pastor. The goal was set for $1,000.

Another service your scribe missed was that of the All Saints Gents, 16th and Central, who gave a salad spread. Mrs. Essie Clay and Mrs. V. Davis were in charge.

The Mother's Club recently held a lovely program at Charity Hall. Mrs. Mary Burrows was mistress-of-ceremonies. Ministers taking part were Elder W. Burrows and Rev. Nathan Tun-was the hostess. Mrs. Tomary Sweatt is president.

Members of the Lotus Men's Club are still receiving high compliments on their recent 61st annual sport dance.

The RCA Hall was beautifully decorated and a new feature was added this year—a floor show given by the Professionals, a local group. Miss Hazel Johnson and Miss Patti Clark were vocalists. Music for the dancing was furnished by the Music Men.

Hayden Hibbitt, entertainment chairman, was in charge of arrangements. The club boasts 25 members. Officers are Bud Garnett, president; James Williams, vice-president; Floyd Young, secretary; William Bobo, assistant secretary, and Leonard Moss, treasurer.

A number of out-of-town guests were present.

Hardy named church's Father Day speaker

William H. Hardy, president of Davidson-Hardy & Associates, Inc., local advertising and public relations firm, will be the featured speaker on Father's Day, Sunday, June 16, at the New Bethel Baptist Church, 1535 Martindale Ave. The program will begin at 3:30 p.m.

Dr. F. Benjamin Davis is pastor of the New Bethel church.

Local receives contract

DAVID D. SMITH

A victorious day was chalked up by Local 1411 of the American Federation of Government Employees, AFL-CIO, at Fort Benjamin Harrison.

It marked the first contract agreement ever presented to this command by a union.

Brigadier Ralph J. Richards Jr. stated he agreed with all the provisions of the contract including all commas and periods.

National president the AFGE John F. Griner, who took a plane from Washington in order to be present at the signing ceremony, stated that the contract was the best that any union under his jurisdiction had ever formulated.

David D. Smith, president of Local 1411 and vice-president of all AFGE lodges in the state of Indiana, lauded all negotiators and committee members of Local 1411 for their tireless efforts and diligent perseverance in drawing up a document that reflects so succinctly the desires of the rank and file employees.

The basic provisions concern leave, promotions, grievance procedure, working conditions, health and safety, and in general the welfare considerations of all employees.

Under Mr. Smith's leadership Local 1411 acquired exclusive right to represent the Finance Center employees in 1967 and post employees in 1968.

TV-13 to present spectacle exploring "racism in U.S.A."

"One Nation Indivisible," a television program exploring racism over our land, the "American dilemma" will be presented Monday, June 24, by WLW-TV-13, local affiliate of AVCO Broadcasting Corporation.

The three - and - one - half hour program again will explore the cause and effect of prejudice and violence over our nation, both black and white.

The program was produced in four segments. Part one is an introduction to a bi-racial group of individuals expressing their views on racism over our nation. The sampling of "average Americans" includes both high school drop-outs and professional business men and women from twelve U.S. cities.

The hour long segment is an attempt to explain both white and Negro fears through the language of "the man on the street" neighbors with whom everyone can identify. The second segment is a half hour of animated discussion by the participants in part one. The individuals were not aware at the time they were interviewed, they would be asked later to meet and discuss the problems they presented in part one.

What is being accomplished? The third segment of the program is devoted to leaders of municipal, state, and federal government whose positive efforts have helped to diminish racial tension. Mayor John V. Lindsay, New York City, vice chairman of the President's National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders, presents a dramatic look at Harlem, and the changes that have occurred since the riots of 1966.

Part four will originate from the TV-13 studios. Leaders from Greater Indianapolis who have viewed the first two hours will present and discuss positive steps that may be taken to assure equality, understanding and racial harmony becoming a reality in both the Negro and white communities over our city.

William E. Wuerch, general manager of WLW-TV, in announcing the program said the National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders has accused the communications industry of "not communicating to whites a feeling for the difficulties and frustrations of being a Negro in the United States."

"TV-13 is responding to this need for effective communication by presenting this vital program. . . the first step by television in bridging the gap between the black and white communities in Indianapolis," he said.

Pursuant to the program viewers will be able to telephone, via direct lines, questions and comments to civic leaders in the TV-13 studios.
